

于是我遵命说预言，气息就进入骸骨，骸骨便活了，并且站起来，成为极大的军队。
So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly Great Army.

37:10

主耶和华的灵在我身上。因为耶和華用膏膏我，叫我传好信息给谦卑的人，差遣我医好伤心的人，报告被掳的得释放，被囚的出监牢。| The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.

During lunch, Rev. Nathaniel Chow told us about a pastor enviously asking him why he invariably allowed Rev. Joshua Cheung to be seated next to him. In response, Rev. Chow said to him, "You also can seat yourself next to me!", and yet when invited, this pastor would choose to be seated at a distance.

During one of the network Morning Devotion, Rev. Joshua said: "I believe I am the most favored son of Rev. Chow." Once Rev.

Chow got on the stage, he responded saying: "whoever believes he is the most favored and loved, he is". So Rev. Chow before the crowd spoke to Rev. Joshua saying, "As you believe I love you the most, then you are my most beloved son!" At the end of the Morning Devotion, Rev. Joshua embraced us saying, "You are also the most beloved."

This little episode shows me an important truth – whoever confessed before people that he is the most beloved of God and of his superior, he became what he confessed. I realized then that our attitude, whether of positive or negative, will definitely influence us to be or not to be the beloved or favored son.

God loves each person and each church, yet is there a way of obtaining His kindness? Whoever willing to accept Him, draw near to Him, will all receive His loving kindness, and proportionate to our degree of thankfulness. The theme of the Network conference this year is on Kindness of God. There were touching moments in every meeting. Rev. Joshua and wife spoke about their adopted dog named Kindness. The dog was abandoned by its owner, obviously sick having lost most of its fur. They adopted it and invested much efforts on its restoration of health. Each day they made it a point to pat and show love to it, feed it well. Wherever allowable and possible, they let it go with them. What initially a rather violent dog, "Kindness" became a tame and happy dog. It faithfully kept the company of its owners, as it came to the end of its life, a simple dog actually opened the eyes of many to the ubiquitous nature of God's kindness around us. A dog recognizes its master, cognizant of his love, and responds by sticking close to the master. When a mere simple dog can be a source of blessing to people, can we not be more so?

The orphan spirit is often a blockage hindering people from entering God's kindness. To enter God's kindness isn't difficult, it is as mentioned by Rev. Chow, whoever willing to soak in the "Kindness of the heavenly Father" as a son, is able to walk out of the orphan's life. Mrs. Joshua Chong also contributed with one superb recipe: Only when one first feels life's poverty, greatly desiring God's kindness, willing to stick close to God, will realize how real and tangible is God's kindness upon our lives.

A good relationship is always interactive. As a mother church to several daughter churches, I have much reflections. Though I desire to see them keep on changing and progressing, able to stick close to us and becoming more blessed, yet they may not understand the stand and love of their mother church. As they seemed to drift further away, the mother church begins to feel like the father of the Prodigal Son, constantly pacing by the gate, scanning the horizon, certain that he would see the son. Isn't that the heart of the Heavenly Father? "kindness" essentially points to God Himself, who often takes initiative to make changes to allow us to receive His Kindness, attracting us by way of His love, acceptance, patience and sacrifices, thus helping us, much deficient in many ways, to enter into His loving-kindness.

We are not only children of God, but also the children and grand children of many of our elders. Therefore we have layers of covering, and this in itself is living in "Kindness". May we constantly position ourselves to receive the "kindness" of our God and our spiritual elders. ■

1. God keeps His covenant of love

When God wants to show His love to men, He will:

A) Cleanse the Land (Deut 7: 1)

God called the Israelites to enter the Promised Land, but before that they must first banish the 7 tribes of Canaan. Canaan has its own economy, idols and cultures; therefore they must be banished in order to set it apart as holy.

The seven tribes of Canaan represent the evil forces of the spiritual realm, sexual immorality, the corruption and confusion of pagan religions. The spirits of these seven Canaanite tribes often hook believers, making them lose appetite towards the works of God, turning away their vision onto material objects. For the churches of today, in order to get back the authority to manage the land, we must wage war with the demons that control this dark world and the spiritual realm, in order to banish the 7 Canaanite tribes.

B) No emotional involvement (Deut 7:2-4)

If we have emotional soul-ties with the 7 Canaanite tribes, it will cause oneself and his next generations to draw away from God, or to compromise with the tribes. God requires us to be pure in our beliefs, therefore in the Old Testament, the Israelites were not allowed to wed other tribes, to avoid adulteration in their belief in God.

C) Give no ground (Deut 7: 5)

God ordered the Israelites to utterly destroy the seven Canaanite tribes, because they have a multitude of sins. Even though God gave them 400 years to repent, they refused to do so. According to historians, the religions of the Canaanites were very evil, if God did not destroy them, these sins would carry on to the next generations, causing men to walk towards destruction.

After accepting Christ there must be a house cleansing, to deal with any matters or objects from past religions, and to not allow a back land for the enemy to stay in our lives.

D) Be sanctified unto God (Deut 7:6-10)

Only love, allows men to live in holiness. In a marriage you only love your spouse, that marriage will be holy. When men only love God, then they will be able to stay in God's holiness. God chose and loved the Israelites, not because of their strengths, but because God is a God of love and keeper of covenants, God wants them to be blessed.

Because God loves us, He wants to protect our holiness, so that we can be in the promises forever. Thus, He leads us to live out a righteous life, giving honor and love to Him, as well as destroying anything that causes us to draw away from God.

2. Blessings from His promises (Deut 7: 12-15)

God wants the people that he chose not to depend on the Canaanites nor on unholy spiritual items, because these will pollute whatever our hands do and it will become a snare, causing men to not have strength. Relying on God is really lived out through Bible reading, understanding and carrying out the principles of the works of God. Do things that are pleasing to His heart, and you will be blessed.

3. God casts out your enemies (Deut 7: 16-26)

We must take back the authority in our own territory, show no pity to the enemy and not to worship their gods, as well as to thoroughly destroy them. We must remember the works and heart of God, He will destroy our enemies.

How God dealt with the Pharaoh in the past, He will likewise deal with the enemies of today. Banishing the enemies, is what God has promised to do. Towards enemies that seem impossible to banish, we will be victorious if we rely on God.

We have the authority in our respective sectors, therefore we must take up the authority to banish the enemies in our sectors, conduct house cleansings, destroying accursed items, banishing the influence of the seven Canaanite tribes. ■ This sermon message was delivered on Jan 11, 2015. MIAO PU 8 BLESSINGS UPON YOU

Word of Blessing

To bring out two different world's value, the interactive between spiritual world and physical world. The key to activate is through the words from our mouth.

Date: 7/2/2015 (Sat)

Time: 3pm

Venue: Dataran Hamodal / Hepzibah

Materials for this week's altar building:

However, there need be no poor people among you, for in the land the Lord your God is giving you to possess as your inheritance, he will richly bless you, if only you fully obey the Lord your God and are careful to follow all these commands I am giving you today. For the Lord your God will bless you as he has promised, and you will lend to many nations but will borrow from none. You will rule over many nations but none will rule over you. (Deut 15:4-6)

1. Israel

- As Israel prepares for the elections in March, pray for a clean and smooth electoral process. May God bless the chosen leaders, that they'll know how to deal with national security and diplomatic issues.
- Pray that the Iran nuclear scam will be exposed completely. May God urge the Western powers to stand firm on their demand that Iran dismantle its nuclear program.

2. Church

- Pray that God will grant us a humble and gentle heart, so that we may pay attention to His words and receive His great blessings for us in this brand new year.
- Pray for the works of evangelising, shepherding and discipline in our church. May our brothers and sisters go forth to shepherd and disciple, be fruitful and multiply.

- Uphold the VIP Luncheon that will take place on 24 January in prayer. May God help the team and speakers that will be preparing for the Luncheon, that they'll be able to encounter God greatly and receive a great gospel harvest.

3. Daughter Churches

- Pray that God will help all our daughter churches to follow Reverend Esther and Reverend Amos closely. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, may the strongholds of cultural diversity be broken, and may each and every one of them be submissive, and be able to receive the anointing and spiritual inheritance of GA611.

4. Nation

- Pray that God's mighty hand will shake all churches, so that each and every one of us will be mindful that this is the time to pray and watch over God's land that has been entrusted upon us.

5. Individual

- Pray for the Holy Spirit to help us understand the word of God better
